

METRO HAS HIGHER TARGETS

Sector: Consumer Staples – Food Retail

(MRU: $46.90; Dividend: $0.72; Yield: 1.54%; Market Cap $12.02B)

Weekly Chart from May 2014

Metro rallied from $21.33 in 2014 to $48.19 in 2016 (A-B) and then settled in a large wedge pattern made up of equal lows near \pm $38 and lower highs (dashed lines). The recent rise above the top of this formation suggests a breakout and the start of a new up-leg toward higher targets (C). A sustained rise above $48-49 would confirm it.

Metro may have a minor correction toward \pm $44; only a sustained decline below \pm $42 would be negative.

Behaviour indicators including the rising 40-week Moving Average (40wMA) confirm the bullish potential.

Point & Figure measurements provide targets of $52 and $57 (11% and 22% appreciation potentials from current levels). The large wedge pattern (dashed lines) supports potentially higher targets.
